Astronauts Have 'Dry Run' Today

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The Gemini 7 spaceship today was put through an important dry run that it must pass to be cleared for launch next Saturday on a record two-week orbital voyage.

The rehearsal began at 7:30 a.m. EST and 45 minutes later backup astronauts Edward White and Michael Collins, wearing spacesuits, entered the spacecraft to participate in the first of three mock launches.

Officials reported that the early stages of the long test were going well, but the final outcome of the drill was not expected to be known until tonight.

If the 12-hour simulated flight test is successful, project officials will start final preparations for the record-breaking endurance flight of astronauts Frank Borman and James Lovell.

But if the rehearsal turns up any problems, the Gemini 7 launch could be delayed. A postponement in the Borman-Lovell flight would also affect the Dec. 13 launching of the Gemini 6 rendezvous ship with astronauts Walter Schirra and Thomas Stafford aboard.

Today's exercise was designed to put the two-stage Titan 2 rocket and its 8,000-pound payload through three mock launches and abbreviated flights.

The booster and spacecraft were rigged to simulate electronically each flight event just as if the craft were actually launched and climbing into space.

Borman and Lovell were scheduled to climb into their capsule in the afternoon portion of the drill to monitor spacecraft instruments and test its systems.

Washington Invaded By 20,000 Marchers

Father Pleads Guilty In Fatal Beating Of Boy, 3

PAW PAW (UPI)—Lawrence R. Mumford, 38, pleaded guilty in Van Buren Circuit Court Friday to a charge of involuntary manslaughter in the beating death of his stepson, Kenneth Huck, 3.

Mumford had originally been charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm in the Oct. 29 beating. But the charge was changed when the boy died in Blodgett Hospital at Grand Rapids Nov. 3.

Judge David Anderson Jr. remanded Mumford to jail pending a presentence investigation.

Anti-War Talk Healthy Sign, President Says

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (UPI) — President Johnson viewed the anti-war protest in Washington today as a healthy sign of free debate, but remained convinced most Americans support his Viet Nam policy.

The chief executive was reported to feel that backing for administration efforts to counter Communist aggression in Southeast Asia has increased in recent weeks as Viet Cong offensives were stepped up.

His views were made known by White House Press Secretary Bill D. Moyers at Johnson's news conference.

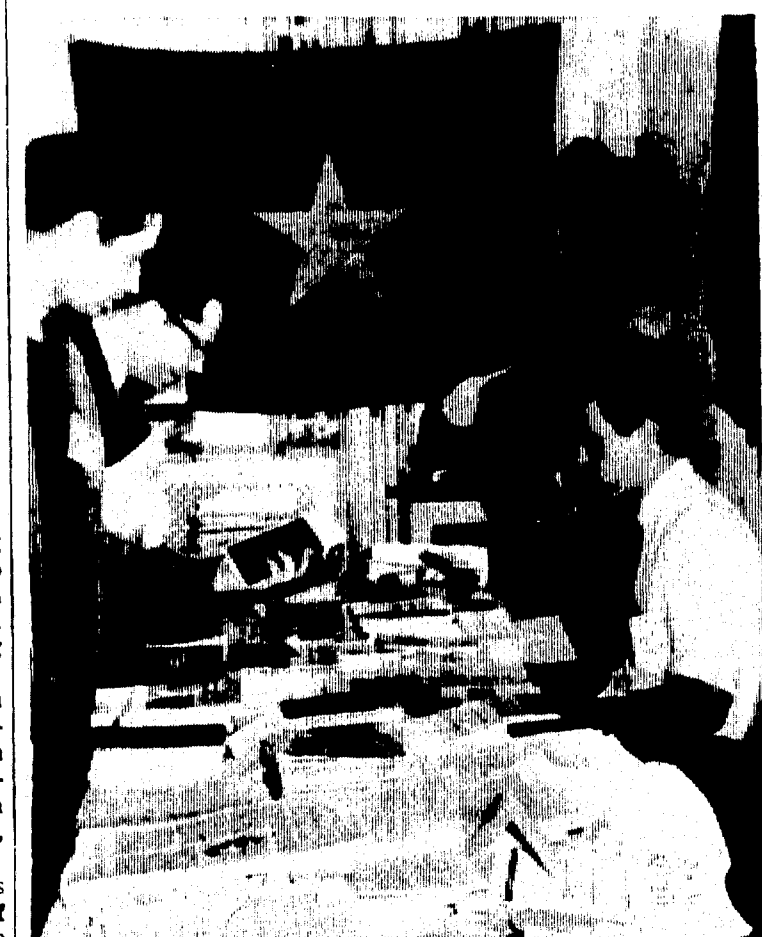

The march in the nation's capital, including the display of Viet Cong flags alongside the Stars and Stripes, was seen by the White House as a valid expression of minority dissent.

Similar protests in the past have annoyed Johnson.

The great majority of Americans support the president's policy of frustrating Communist aggression and diligently seeking a peaceful settlement in Viet Nam, Moyers said.

"It's not easy for Americans to give that support when the price is paid in the blood of American soldiers," but they do give it," he said.

Johnson spent most of Friday afternoon discussing his new budget with Budget Director Charles Schultze and his deputy, Elmer Staats.

Protest Groups Bring Banners And Oratory

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Twenty thousand or more peace marchers descended on Washington today to protest U. S. policies in Viet Nam with oratory and banners — possibly including Viet Cong flags.

The "March on Washington for Peace in Viet Nam" was to get under way with picketing around the White House following a 10:30 a.m., EST meeting by march leaders with Chester Cooper, an aide to presidential adviser McGeorge Bundy.

Leaders of the march hoped to make their goals clear in their meeting with Cooper. Following the picketing and the march to the grounds of the Washington Monument several blocks away, a program of speeches was scheduled at 2 p.m., EST.

Dr. Spock Speaks Included in the 60 sponsors and heading the list of speakers were Dr. Benjamin Spock, noted pediatrician and author and veteran Socialist leader Norman Thomas.

In their prepared addresses, Spock, Thomas and the other speakers called for a halt to U. S. bombing of North Viet Nam, a suspension of the U.S. military buildup in Asia and renewed efforts to end the war with peace negotiations.

Washington police assigned 600 officers to patrol the route of the march, with additional men from the U.S. Park Police on hand at the Washington Monument.

But one of the biggest problems faced by the leaders of the march was the views of other anti-war groups attending a four-day convention of the National Coordinating Committee to End the War in Viet Nam.

Selling Flags One of the groups at the convention, which is not connected with the march, was selling the yellow, blue and red Viet Cong flags for use in the march.

Spock, who is a co-chairman of the Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy, said in his prepared speech to be delivered following the picketing that "this was not to hurt communism nearly as much as it hurts America."

"It pushes Communist nations into each others' arms and arouses sympathy for them in other countries," he said, calling for an end to bombing and a "frank clarification" of the U.S. position on peace negotiations.

Zambia Wants British Troops

LONDON (UPI) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson was under heavy pressure today to send troops to Zambia on the northern border of white-ruled Rhodesia.

Troops were requested 10 days ago by Zambian President Kenneth Kaunda, who renewed his demand Friday after an early morning explosion cut power lines and blacked out Zambia's rich copper belt.

Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith called the explosion an act of sabotage and suggested it was the work of Communists.

Informed sources said the question of sending a token force of troops to Zambia had been under consideration ever since Rhodesia declared itself independent Nov. 11.

They said a decision would hinge on an analysis of the situation by Malcolm MacDonald, special envoy to east and central Africa, who arrives here Sunday for talks with Commonwealth Secretary Arthur Bottomley.

Surprise Attack Staged By 1,000 Red Guerrillas

SAIGON (UPI) — An estimated 1,000 Communist guerrillas attacked U.S.-advised South Vietnamese troops today on a French-owned rubber plantation 40 miles northwest of Saigon, it was reported here.

A U.S. military spokesman said several American military advisers were killed in furious fighting.

The Vietnamese troops and their American advisers apparently were camped along a service road running from north to south through the 50-square-mile Michelin Plantation.

The Communist attack this morning appeared to be a bid for control of the huge plantation.

The military spokesman said the Communists unleashed their surprise attack against troops of the Vietnamese 7th Regiment at dawn, while the Vietnamese were preparing breakfast.

He said there were no detailed reports of casualties on either side.

An Air Force spokesman said Navy and Air Force planes began bombing and strafing the attacking Communists within 17 minutes of the battle's opening shots.

The Michelin Plantation is at the northwestern corner of the Communist "Iron Triangle" stronghold.

Four to six Communist MIG jet fighters jumped two unarmed American photo reconnaissance planes over North Viet Nam, an American military spokesman reported today.

Despite the odds, the U.S. fliers escaped unscathed.

It was the second time in two weeks that Communist planes have attacked American fliers over North Viet Nam, but in both instances the Americans returned safely to base.

Stewardess, 27, Shot In Head

TOLEDO, Ohio (UPI) — A stewardess from a Norwegian motorship was reported in critical condition in a hospital here today, after suffering a gunshot wound in the head near Monroe, Mich.

Mrs. Gerd Hoivaag, 27, had signed on with the ship Vikars, only last month. The ship is docked at Toledo Marine Terminal.

She was taken to Riverside Hospital, Toledo, after she was found along a lonely road with a head wound.

Held in connection with the shooting is Robert Clayton, 30, an employee of a private police agency that patrols the terminal. Police said Clayton led them to the wounded woman.

Clayton, the father of five, told police he and Mrs. Hoivaag had visited several Monroe County taverns and had then parked in a lane nearby early Friday. He said it was his second date with Mrs. Hoivaag since the ship docked Sunday.

Clayton told police Mrs. Hoivaag pointed his pistol at him and he struggled for it. He said the gun went off and the bullet struck her. Police quoted Clayton as saying he then dragged Mrs. Hoivaag from his car into a nearby weed patch and went to his home on the other side of Toledo.

Clayton said his wife noticed his bloodstained clothing and he told her the story. She called Toledo police and Clayton led them to the spot where they found Mrs. Hoivaag.

Hostages Help Foil Holdup At Bank In Texas

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UPI) — The little things — a bank teller with good hearing, a one-word command from a policeman, and three hostages who knew exactly what to do — made the difference between a successful bank robbery and three arrests.

Lubbock County sheriff's officers today held Rudy Clarence Garcia, 29, Epifanio Bela, 21, and Juan E. Ysagasa, 37. They were suspected of abducting a church worker and her son, of trying to hold up the First State Bank at Idalou, Tex., and of holding three women hostages while bargaining with officers to escape.

The complicated process started Friday when a masked man walked into the First Methodist Church at Idalou, 15 miles northeast of Lubbock.

The man took high school football player Joe Rackley, 16, and his mother, Mrs. D. R. Rackley to Mrs. Rackley's auto. He tied, gagged, and locked them in the car trunk.

Young Rackley said the auto drove around a half hour. When it stopped he and his mother pounded on the trunk, worked the gags from their mouths and shouted. Somebody soon opened the lid and they found themselves outside the Idalou bank.

Inside the bank, three bandits had thrust a gun and a bag at teller. They were overheard by another teller, Charley Jackson, who tripped an alarm that sounded in police stations in Lubbock and Idalou.

The sound of police sirens alerted the bandits. They tied up Jackson, teller Richard Pruitt and bank President G. L. Haley. Then they got three women tellers — Mrs. Wendell Surret, Ann Everett, and Mrs. Bobby Bartlett — to hold as hostages.

The robbers called out to police to give them a getaway car and 10 minutes' head start and said they would wait until dark to make their next move.

Police moved the crowd back, a job that took an hour. It began to get dark.

An officer yelled in to see the women to make sure they were all right. The bandits let them go to the doorway of a room, visible to the police.

The officer yelled to the women, "Duck."

They did, behind a wall. The bandits panicked. Two of them ran to an auto behind the bank, got in and drove off. A half block later, their auto smashed into a car parked along the road. Police closed in on them and took them into custody.

The third bandit stayed, confused, in the bank room. He was arrested.

Storms Batter Seven States

By United Press International Tornadoes, damaging windstorms, hail and rain raked seven Midwestern states late Friday night in a massive storm measuring almost 1,000 miles across.

Many farm buildings were damaged, a hospital was unroofed, and telephone and power lines were downed. No deaths and few injuries were reported, largely because the storm bypassed many urban areas. It struck across Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Arkansas, Kentucky, Tennessee and Ohio.

The weather bureau said today it was the fiercest storm to sweep the area since last spring. More trouble was in store for much of the area this weekend as forecasters warned of a powerful wintry storm blowing out of Canada across the upper Middle West. Two feet of snow already covered northeastern Minnesota today and near blizzard conditions of cold and blinding snow prevailed.

At Nashville in southern Illinois, a tornado rolled up the roof of Washington County hospital as a person would a small rug. A layer of insulation was scant protection against the driving rain that followed and patients had to be moved to other areas. Damage to the roof was estimated at $10,000.

The high winds toppled a 300-foot electric tower at Paxton, Ill. Winds reached 85 miles an hour at Joliet, Ill. Several small planes were destroyed by a funnel cloud at Steele, Mo.

At least 23 persons remained in critical condition today in area hospitals. Four of them, in Mercy Hospital at Burlington, Iowa, were listed as "very critical."

The name of the third victim was withheld.

Seven persons died in the Wednesday night blast which occurred during a square dance. Many victims were trapped when the roof collapsed on a roomful of dancers.

Auto Deaths May Set Record

By United Press International The traffic death count passed 300 as the last half of the long Thanksgiving weekend began today.

A United Press International count showed at least 323 persons had died in traffic since the autumn holiday began at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

The breakdown: Fires 328 Planes 9 Miscellaneous 51 Total 431

New tragedies added to the toll. Four children, aged 3 through 16, died when fire swept their Lafayette, Ind., home. One person was killed and 10 were injured in violent storms which raked the Midwest during the night.

Three new deaths raised the toll in the Thanksgiving eve explosion at a Keokuk, Iowa, armory to 10. A square dance was in progress when the building blew up.

California paced the death count with 27 traffic fatalities. There were 24 in Texas, 22 in Ohio, 15 in both Florida and New York State, and 13 each in Michigan, Missouri and Pennsylvania.

'Mooning' Boys Sent To Jail At Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — Three teenagers Friday were sentenced to two days in jail for "mooning."

Justice of the Peace Ray Blott sentenced the 17-year-olds because "They didn't have clothing on parts of their anatomy where they should have had clothing while riding down a public highway."

Blott said the three looked in the opposite direction with heads exposed to passing motorists. He said in California the practice is called "mooning."

Vatican Library Loot Recovered

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Two priceless manuscripts and a crown stolen Friday in a daring raid on the Vatican Library have been found in a field near Rome, police reported today.

They were undamaged and in good condition.

Pope Paul VI, reported dispossessed by the theft, was immediately informed of their recovery.

Pickup 2nd pgh: The manuscripts

The manuscripts by 14th century humanist Francesco Petrarca and 16th century poet Torquato Tasso and the replica of the Crown of St. Stephan were found in a field near the Via Cassia, one of the main highways leading north from Rome.

Yet to be found was the fourth item taken from the heavily guarded Vatican Library — a manuscript stained with the blood of Ecuadorean President Garcia Moreno who was assassinated in 1875.

A telephone call from a woman whose gardener had reported noting "some books" in a field led to the recovery of the manuscripts and the crown, police said.

The theft of two manuscripts and two relics valued at more than $500,000 was discovered only Friday by Vatican Gendarmes who called in Italian police.

Traffic Mishaps Take Lives Of 13 In Michigan

By United Press International Hopes of safety experts for a safe weekend on Michigan highways all but died with the 13 persons fatally injured so far this Thanksgiving weekend.

Robert Kibler Jr., 16, of Grand Rapids was killed early today in a chain collision accident of six cars in Grand Rapids during a heavy rain and wind storm.

Two passengers of one car were killed Friday night in an accident at a Detroit intersection. They were Murdis H. DeBose, 33, and Kirby Diller, Jr., 28, both of Detroit.

An accident on the Lodge Expressway in the Motor City Friday night claimed the life of Vincent J. Omanpas, 42, Temperance. He was the driver of a truck which skidded out of control, striking a parked car and throwing him onto the pavement.

France Has First Satellite In Orbit

PARIS (UPI) — France's first earth satellite circled the globe every hour and 48 minutes today, a solid symbol of President Charles de Gaulle's campaign theme of greater glory for his country.

The satellite's voice was weak, the fault of a defective radio transmitter, but its faint beep-beep-beep signals from space were strong enough to remind 49 million Frenchmen that the aging general will do his best to keep their country in the front rank of the world's powers so long as they keep him in the presidency.

After a seven hour technical delay Friday, a three-stage "Diamond" rocket launched a candy-striped, keg-shaped instrument package, from a rocket test center at Hammaguir, Algeria, deep in the Sahara Desert.

Just over 10 minutes later the satellite went into an elliptical orbit ranging from a high of 1,098.5 miles to a low point of 320.08 miles, and put France into the space race with the United States and the Soviet Union.

The shot had been rushed to give De Gaulle a boost in prestige as the presidential election campaign entered its final week.

23 SHOPPING DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS

Thunderstorm Hits Area; Santa Welcomed In Rain

Nearly one and one-half inches of rain, lashed by strong winds accompanying an unseasonable thunderstorm made contradictory weather news in the Escanaba area Friday night.

The rain mixed with snow began about noontime Friday but changed to rain as the temperature moderated. The Weather Bureau had predicted snow.

Santa Claus, sponsored by the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, arrived on schedule despite the storm but found his Ludington St. parade route almost as wet as a canal in Venice. He rode his sleigh atop a truck and sought the protection of an umbrella at times.

The violent weather that followed was part of a vast disturbance that raked the Middle Western states Friday night.

Flights Disrupted

Winds in Escanaba were up to 35 miles an hour from the southeast. Thunder and lightning sounded an unseasonable note. The pelting rain totaled 1.40 inches.

Temperatures rose briefly in the early night, with a high of 48 noted unofficially at the height of the thunderstorm. The mercury had fallen to 31 degrees at 7 a. m. and winds were 17 miles an hour.

The storm disrupted North Central Airlines service in Escanaba Friday. The flight arriving at 12:05 p. m. turned about here and left on schedule southbound at 3:11 p. m. rather than continue to Marquette and return and the night layover flight due here at 9:45 p. m. ended at Green Bay.

There was no early morning flight south today and it seemed probable that the noon flight would turn about here as it did on Friday.

The forecast here is for occasional snow flurries tonight and continuing on Sunday with a high of 28 degrees. The low tonight will be 18. The outlook for Monday is partly cloudy and warmer.

SANTA CLAUS was traditional but the weather wasn't when he arrived in Escanaba Friday for a parade at 1 p. m. There was a rainstorm under way and his sleigh went the parade route on a truck. (Daily Press Photo)

Downstate Hit

Several communities in Michigan were struck in Michigan, but losses were relatively light. It was the remnants of a storm that killed several persons and injured others in the Midwest.

At Marshall the roof was torn from a supermarket, a house trailer was tipped over and power lines were knocked down. Part of that community was without electricity for several hours after the high winds.

State Police said there were no confirmed sightings of twisters in Michigan although several out-buildings were knocked down near Athens. They said winds hit 50 miles an hour in some sections of southwestern Michigan late Friday evening.

A 30-foot Christmas tree plucked from the marquee of a Grand Rapids department store early today during the heavy windstorm, ripped through the non-metal top of a sports car and caused minor injuries to the driver, Richard Honnolt, 18, of Grand Rapids.

Ships Delayed

The storm dumped snow on some areas of the state in the wake of the high winds.

Five inches fell at Houghton and four inches at Marquette and reports said furies occurred as far south as Battle Creek.

In Manistique, heavy rains turned to snow as temperatures plunged early today. High winds caused minor damage in the city and forced two vessels bound for Port Inland to tie up in the Mackinac Island area. Blasts up to 8 miles per hour were recorded at Port Inland at 6 p. m. Friday.

Officials hoped the limestone carriers Fitzgerald and Joseph S. Young could continue today, though shore winds of 30 miles per hour were still straining the shoreline this morning. Temperatures at Port Inland dropped from 42 degrees at 1 a. m. to 26 at 10 a. m. today.

One power pole was reported down on Deer St. and a tree was uprooted near the Court House in Manistique, but utilities were reported operating normally this morning.

Young Hunter Wounded Again

MANISTIQUE — William H. Prater, 17, of Naubinway, who a year ago accidentally shot himself with a .22 caliber rifle, was hospitalized at Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital Friday for treatment of another accidental gunshot wound.

The derailment occurred after four diesel engine units and 17 cars en route to the Escanaba ore docks had passed.

CALUMET — Jim Wescot of Calumet is the possessor of a soft-nosed, copper-jacketed bullet. He took it from the door of his car. Wescot said he and his son, Harold, were driving on U. S. 41 when they heard a loud bang from the right side of the car. Thinking it was a blowout, they got out of the car and checked the tires. Finding all four intact, they continued. Mrs. Wescot found the hole in the front door a day later. The bullet was located inside the door where it had fallen after striking a steel frame. The shot was believed to have been fired by a deer hunter.

IRON MOUNTAIN — Northern Michigan University will offer credit courses at its Iron Mountain-Kingsford residence credit center next spring. The Center, scheduled to open Feb. 7, 1966, will be similar to those already serving K. I. Sawyer and Kincheloe Air Force Bases. Initial offerings will include sociology, mathematics, English, history, music appreciation. Students at the NMU-center will be given full, on-campus privileges.

Troop 444 To Give 5 Eagles

Escanaba Boy Scout Troop 444 on Tuesday, Dec. 7, will hold an historic Court of Honor advancement ceremony. Five Scouts will receive their Eagle Scout badges, highest rank in Scouting, in an unprecedented award of the honor.

The awardees are Richard Anderson, Charles Armstrong and Richard Armstrong, brothers, Ben Helmer and Michael Labre.

A boy must have earned 21 merit badges to become an Eagle Scout. Three of these must be from the citizenship group and the Scout must have served as a leader in the troop.

Only about two per cent of Scouts earn Eagle rank each year. The 500,000th Eagle award since the founding of Scouting in the United States was presented this month. This is the first time five boys from one troop have received the Eagle award at one time in the Red Buck District and these are the first Eagle Scout awards in Troop 444.

Other badges will be presented. George Rusch will receive his Life Scout award and Steve Simons his Star Scout badge.

A pot-luck supper for the Scouts of Troop 444, their parents and guests will be served at 6:15 p. m. at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and the Court of Honor will follow.

The Area Concept

When Delta County votes Monday, Dec. 6, on a proposal for a 2 mill tax for 1 year to improve the Escanaba Airport, it will be balloting on several issues wrapped up in one vote.

The Delta County Board of Supervisors, which participated in a study of Delta County air service needs, ordered the Dec. 6 vote on a once only tax for airport improvement and said that it would interpret the vote as indicative of the county's decision on support of the airport. The study committee proposed that the county take over the city-owned airport and own and operate it.

The county has been helping support the airport with an appropriation of $6,000 a year, but the city also pays 42 per cent of this aid.

The election issue is: Shall the county improve the airport to make it safe and suitable for jet planes and take it over for operation? Discussion on the issue has turned on the proportion of benefits which the City of Escanaba and the County of Delta receive from the airport.

A frequently heard suggestion, and one which we think makes sense is: Why not pay in the proportion of usage and benefit? This, essentially, is what is proposed in the Dec. 6 election. An airport authority could make a more precise application of the tax in proportion to benefit, and no doubt would, later, but it could never be exact in any event nor fully satisfactory.

For one thing, the airport serves an area much larger than Delta County. People come from Manistiquette and Munising, from Newberry and Trenary to board planes here, and their counties don't support the Escanaba Airport nor is there any prospect that they will. There simply must be an accommodation to realities and air service is created when there is enough traffic to warrant it. Little communities can't have it. They get it at the airports of larger communities.

We use the word "communities" here in the large sense of counties, because the airports in the Upper Peninsula are county-owned, except for Escanaba's and Sault Ste. Marie's. The modern airport brings a general benefit. It helps every person in an area, whether the person ever uses it or not.

Voters on Dec. 6 should note that much more than just a county takeover is involved. The airport is at a crossroads. Someone must put some money in it if it is to remain fully useful. Its terminal building is hazardous, inadequate and harmful to the cause of economic growth here. It needs extension of its long runway to accommodate jet planes. To get state and federal airport construction aid to match the 2 mills a commitment must be made now to get 1968 jet service.

If Delta County votes Yes on Dec. 6 this will happen:

1. The local millage of $152,750 will finance a $521,000 airport modernization project (with state and federal aid).
2. The county will take over the airport.
3. Delta County will have an airport ready for jets in 1968 when North Central Airlines says they'll be here.
4. Delta County will have acted to encourage industrial and business growth here.

If Delta County votes No on Dec. 6 this will happen:

1. The city will keep the airport and be faced with the problem of financing its needed development for the benefit of the area. (Harnischfeger Corp., for instance, the city's largest employer, uses air service heavily. Most of its employees live outside Escanaba.)
2. More county help to the city for the airport may be forthcoming later with reapportionment of the Delta County Board of Supervisors to reflect one-man, one-vote representation. But the deadline will have been passed for state and federal matching funds for airport construction to be ready for the jets in 1968.
3. A chance for the county to get a large benefit in transportation improvement and economic stimulation will have been missed.

Finding The Way

Time For Self-Control

By RALPH W. LOEW, D. D.

Protest has always been a significant part of the American scene. Our nation came into being as a "revolution," our political life has been geared to the freedom of controversy and there is a deep strain of respect for the right to speak up and to speak out. Americans know how to talk back.

Yet there have been times when we seemed to shy at our own tradition. McCarthyism was a brief venture in quelling protest and in recent weeks there have been voices, angered at draft card burnings and other acts, that cried out: "The government knows best." Thus the pendulum swings.

Protest demands responsibility. The extremes in draft-dodging and irresponsible protest are obviously unpatriotic; so are the irresponsible voices that cry for the bombing of Hanoi and Red China.

I interviewed a picket in front of the White House on one occasion. This placard-carrier knew that the President was not at home. He knew that responsible political leaders were not seeing his protest. His chief benefit was simply that he was getting something off his own chest. It was probably good therapy for him to release his pent-up frustrations instead of encouraging others to do the same.

Richard Hofstadter, in his study of anti-intellectualism, states: "Dissenting intellectuals often seem to feel that they are morally on trial for being intellectuals, and their moral responsibility is then interpreted as a responsibility primarily to reputation and destruction."

Three Colleges Back U. S. Policy In Viet Nam War

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department received petitions signed by 4,700 students from three colleges today supporting U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

ANSWER

In Mr. Powelson's recent letter to your newspaper, he stated his views on the issue "Should Alger County build a Long Term Care Unit?" In that recent legislation referred to—the Kerr-Mills Act—which allows elderly persons presently under Old Age Assistance to now qualify under the Medical Assistance to the Aged. Mr. Powelson feels this is the answer to all of the County's problems.

We only wish this were true. This act only applies to that percentage of individuals over 65 years of age who qualify and is not the entire program. He fails to take into account the balance of the program for which he provides no solution. This problem becomes the responsibility of all of the taxpayers in Alger County.

It has come to our attention that Mr. Powelson's letter has led people in Alger County and the City of Munising to believe that this is an endorsement of the city commission. His opinion is his own, and does not reflect the opinion of the Munising city commission, and should have been stated as such.

VETO

Your recent editorial supporting Governor Romney's vetoes of the veterans' property tax relief bill, the senior citizens renters' property tax relief bill, and the bill to aid small colleges, suffers from the same lack of candor and honesty as do the Romney-Milliken veto messages themselves.

You and Romney have decided to hide the fact that the Legislature, even with the much needed appropriations contained in the three vetoed bills, has actually spent $10.5 million less from the so-called "surplus" than the amount recommended by Romney in his own 1965-66 budget.

You and Romney have also hidden the fact that even with the expenditures contained in the three vetoed bills, there will be more money left in the so-called "surplus" at the end of the year, than the amount suggested by Romney himself.

So who's being more "financially responsible," Romney or the Legislature?

Why don't you give the veterans, the senior citizens, and the college people the facts instead of helping Romney drag a phony red herring across the path of truth?

ZOLTAN A. FORENCY
Chairman, Democratic State Central Committee

Editor's note: Zoltan Forency has been a leader of the Democratic faction trying to get Democratic state legislators to enact tax reform, not so much because it is needed, perhaps, as because the party in power is going to get a political black eye if Michigan has another round of payless paydays.

The editorial cited was not as opinionated as interpretive, giving the opposing views of issue as presented by Democratic legislators and Governor Romney and Lieut. Governor Milliken. It suggested in its editorial opinion that the veto represented political courage in an effort to educate the public that responsible government doesn't vote continuing financial obligations for the state without voting the money to pay for them. The fact that there might be a little in the kitty for the first payment doesn't change the facts at all, as polking Zoltan Forency well knows.

CLARIFICATION

I want to clarify the "editor's note" in answer to my letter in the Nov. 18 Press. I want the public to understand our situation and I don't think we should take the blame as councilmen.

The city councilmen received the same information that the Press did. The first comparison of dollar figures received by the Council and the Press was on Oct. 29, 1965. The election to be held on Nov. 2. Rather late to provide information to the public. On the proposed change in pensions for Escanaba policemen and firemen under Act 345.

The City Council agreed other information was required and three weeks prior to election re-

Who's Ignorant?

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — To judge from their own utterances, the country's arch conservatives and radical rightists are the greatest and most important educators this nation has ever known.

Endlessly, their spokesmen tell their listeners that they are "educating" the American people as to the dangers of communism and all activities leading thereto.

"Our whole strategy is education," says Robert Welch, the candy manufacturer who founded the John Birch Society.

The words even cropped up in the campaign for New York mayor by William F. Buckley Jr., the arch conservative who sought to block John Lindsay's path.

Buckley frequently described New York as the nation's "most left-minded city." Asked how a Republican of his type could ever expect to win in such a city, he answered that education—"the collision with reality"—would bring this about much sooner than most people imagined.

Underlying the notion that education is the right wing's great mission are two enormous presumptions that:

1. The overwhelming proportion of the American people is grossly ignorant of the perils of communism which are about to engulf it — and hence needs to be "educated."

2. The present assortment of right-wing leaders, grading from what are sometimes called the "rational conservatives" all the way to the very far out, are uniquely and superbly qualified to educate tens of millions of their untutored fellow Americans.

The John Birch Society, the Revs. Billy Hargis and Carl McIntire, Clarence Manion of the "Manion - Forum," Dan Smoot of the "Dan Smoot Report," Dr. Frederick Schwarz, even Barry Goldwater's Free Society Association, all are putting the country through its school paces.

Yet it is quite fair to question the presumptions on which they operate.

Aside from Manion, a former dean of the Notre Dame law questioned other comparative dollar studies, regarding cost, through city clerk to the city controller. The city controller informed the city clerk that such request was not understood and therefore could not provide it.

Based on information the City Council had available to it at the time of the election, the endorsement of proposal was made. This City Council has at all times — and will continue to do so — tried to inform the public of facts on every issue and has gone out of its way to reach the public, because we think the public should know. Therefore, doesn't this show that the City Council's decision was made on facts at hand?

Item in the Press regarding $78,000 cost was in the city manager's newsletter to the City Council dated 10-27-65, received 10-29-65, a matter of a few days before the election. This did not provide the City Council very much time for evaluation and analysis for public information. Thank you.

H. George Nelson
City Councilman

Ann Landers

Don't Be Too Tough On Boy

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a father who has a serious problem and I need your help. First I want to thank the police officer who stopped my son. He is an alert and devoted public servant and I want him to know I am grateful.

The officer spotted Bud driving a very expensive car. He stopped the boy and asked for identification. After a few phone calls the officer was satisfied that the car was not stolen.

In my opinion the car WAS stolen. It belonged to the parents of another teenager (my son's friend.) The boy's parents were out of town for the weekend and their young son said it was O.K. for Bud to take the car for the evening.

I say Bud should be punished by having his driving privileges taken away for one year. My wife says no harm was done, so we should forget it. I need your help. — STEPHEN ON FATHER

Dear Father: The boy did wrong and no amount of twisting and turning can change the facts, but it's doubtful that he would be found guilty in a court of law. Your wife's notion that "no harm was done so forget it" is outrageous.

Bud should be punished — but I feel that the penalty you recommend is too severe.

I suggest that Bud be denied automobile privileges for three months. This would be reasonable and just.

Dear Ann Landers: I am 24, married, have a two-year-old child and another on the way. The problem is my mother.

From the day our child was born mother has sent gifts until my husband is ready to blow his stack. She is making him feel like a charity case. My husband earns a modest salary but we get along just fine.

Last night mother announced that she plans to buy everything from nursery furniture to a complete layette for the new baby. My husband left the room. We don't need anything new, Ann. The baby can use many of the things the first child has had.

How can we let mother know we want her love and not a barrage of gifts? — NOT FOR SALE

Dear Not: A gift can be many things. It can be an expression of thoughtfulness and love and it can also be a pay-off, an eraser of guilt, a club — and a device to create indebtedness.

Tell your mother she is creating a problem with her excessive generosity and that you can accept only birthday and Christmas gifts from now on. And make it stick. The first time she sends an "extra" — send it back.

Confidential To How Did It Look To Others:

I don't know. I wasn't there. But YOU were. No person can make you look like a fool without your full cooperation.

Confidential To Black And Blue And Embarrassed: Tell him to practice his judo holds on his male friends. I don't blame your father for being burned up. (This is a way to spend an evening?)

Too many starry-eyed lovers do not know the difference. Do you? Send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Before You Marry — Is It Love Or Sex?", enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

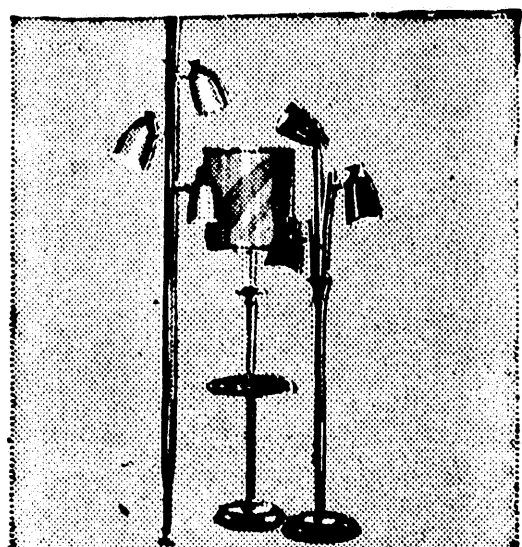

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The flower girl wore a short white dress with an overlay of tiered lace and her flower crown was of yellow and white pompons. She carried a basket of pompons also in yellow and white.

Silhouette Gown
The bride chose a white floor length controlled silhouette gown of peau taffeta fashioned with elbow length sleeves and a scoop neckline. Venice lace trimmed the sleeves and hemline and a wattleau chapel train swept from a bow at the crescent waistline. Following the wedding the train was drawn into a bustle. Her four tiered veil of hand finished nylon illusion was held by a dainty double crown of illusion leaves accented with pearl trim. She carried a cascade arrangement of red sweetheart roses with white carnations and ivy.

The first choice should be whether cotton, synthetic, blend or wool is desired. Paying an extra dollar or two often pays big dividends. Usually a higher-cost carpeting means more yarn. The denser the pile, or the tighter the yarns are packed, the better the carpet, regardless of height of the pile. This is the best single clue to a good buy.

Personals

Births

SCHERIFF—A daughter, Toni Lynn, was born at 12:21 p.m. Wednesday at St. Francis Hospital to Mrs. and the late Anthony T. Scheriff, 402 S. 7th St. The baby weighed 8 pounds, 1 ounce. Mrs. Scheriff is the former Evelyn Snow.

STRAPLESS COMEBACK

The strapless gown is making a comeback for fall and winter, but it is a more built-up version than that of yesterday. Most gowns take the plunge only in the back.

For attending the wedding and the reception, Mrs. Getzloff wore a metallic navy and light blue suit with black accessories and her corsage was of red sweetheart roses. Mrs. Ruthsatz was attired in a soft green wool sheath dress and she wore black accessories. A corsage of bronze and yellow pompons complimented her attire.

A reception from 4 to 8 p. m. was held at the Flat Rock Town Hall followed by a dance from 9 to 1 a. m. Assisting at the reception were: Sue Erickson and Pam Arley, at the silver service; Judy Swank and Ada Knauf, cutting the cake and Sandy Young and Phyllis Lippens circulating the guest book. Guests attended from Mansfield, Wis.; Sandusky, Ohio; Milwaukee and Chicago.

The couple is now at home at Rte. 1 Gladstone. The bride is a student at Bay de Noc Community College in the practical nursing course. Mr. Ruthsatz is presently serving with the U. S. Air Force stationed at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base.

Needs Govern Carpet Choice

MANISTIQUE — Persons "laying out a new carpet" for friends and neighbors this holiday season have a number of important decisions to make. Grace M. Villwock, extension home economics agent notes.

She points out that each room has its own special requirements and choices will depend on the color scheme and expected wear from normal traffic.

To some extent it is true that price is a good index of quality. But choice is difficult, as prices range from $4.95 per square yard for cottons to $12.95 or more per square yard for nylons and wools.

The first choice should be whether cotton, synthetic, blend or wool is desired. Paying an extra dollar or two often pays big dividends. Usually a higher-cost carpeting means more yarn. The denser the pile, or the tighter the yarns are packed, the better the carpet, regardless of height of the pile. This is the best single clue to a good buy.

A $12.95 carpet may be practical in one room and not in another. The amount of wear and the length of time there will be satisfaction with the styling should be considered.

Wear is often dependent on abrasion resistance and resilience, says Miss Villwock. Generally, nylon, cotton, wool and acrylics give the best abrasion resistance. This is needed around the TV set, in hallways and other heavy traffic areas.

Resilience, the ability of the fiber to spring back to original shape, varies with material. Cotton packs very easily under the foot. Acetate and rayon have moderate to poor resilience and acrylics, nylons and wool, excellent.

As the carpet is going to get dirty, fabrics which don't show soil should be checked. Soil resistant fibers, tweeds, medium and dark tones, soil retardants, combinations of bright and dull fibers and bulked filaments will aid with brighter, cleaner carpets.

Often use of a trademark demands quality factors helpful to the consumer.

Women's Groups Urged To Join Minuteman Plan

The Michigan Council of Women's Organizations, holding its fall meeting in Detroit, voted unanimously to ask all women's groups in the state to join the Michigan Minuteman plan.

This would mean an aggressive and continuing effort by each organization to enlist and train its members as salesmen for the state, with the commitment by each enlistee to take a minute to talk about Michigan at practically every opportunity when traveling outside the state or meeting someone from outside the state who is traveling in Michigan.

Presiding at the council meeting at the Engineering Society of Detroit was its chairman, Mrs. James A. Quinn of Rogers City, president of the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs. The federation includes clubs in more than 200 towns with a total membership of 20,000 women.

At least a quarter of a million women are in the state and district organizations represented in the Council, which coordinates activity of women's groups in Michigan Week. The Michigan Minuteman program is carried on in connection with the annual state celebration. The 13th annual Michigan Week is next May 15-21.

Nine Escape Headon Crash

Rain and sleet on area highways Friday contributed to the cause of seven minor accidents, one of them headon. State Police of the Gladstone Post said today.

There were no serious injuries reported in any of the accidents.

Nine persons escaped with bumps and bruises when cars driven by Robert Woodard, 19, of 211 N. 16th St., Escanaba, and Mardell Wight, 31, Maywood, Ill., collided headon on Co. Rd. 416 at Co. Rd. E-10, Cornell Township, at 11:25 a.m.

Troopers said Woodard, who was traveling about 25 miles per hour, skidded on a curve into the path of Wight's car. Wight estimated his speed at 15 miles per hour. Police said the reduced speed of both cars undoubtedly prevented serious injury. There were two passengers in Woodard's car and five with Wight.

Woodard was ticketed for driving on the wrong side of the roadway.

Gloria Butryn, 20, of Rte. 1, Escanaba, and her one-year-old son, Allan, also escaped serious injury when the car she was driving rolled over off Co. Rd. 414 at the intersection of C-27 in Wells Township. Troopers said she was driving east on Co. Rd. 414 at 10:05 a. m. when she lost control of her car. She was ticketed for driving left of center.

Thomas Muller, 19, of Marshall, Mich., was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law after his car ran off U. S. 2 at Ensign and struck a parked car owned by John Maki of Gladstone.

Also ticketed was James Weddell, 908 Dakota Ave., for disregarding a stop sign.

Yule Customs Are Worldwide

Celebrating the happy holiday of Christmas is an almost universal custom, and many of the traditions belonging to the day are universal, too. Gift giving, merrymaking, gaily decorated trees and brightly glowing lights are holiday habits that have found their way to almost every corner of the globe.

Along with the similarities in the way people observe Christmas go just as many differences. From country to country, from city to city, from family to family, holiday customs vary, sometimes just enough to show the touch of individual imagination, and sometimes so greatly that it seems hard to believe the same day is being commemorated.

Gift Giving

It's traditional to receive gifts during the Yuletide season, but the time is not always December 25, and the gift-giver is not always Santa.

One of the earliest Christmas giving times takes place in the Netherlands, according to the Book of Knowledge. Here, the children receive their gifts from St. Nicholas on December 5. The date, appropriately enough, is called St. Nicholas Eve, in honor of the real St. Nicholas, a fourth century bishop.

Christmas gift giving in Italy comes on January 5, which is known as Epiphany Eve. The traditional gift giver is Befana. Legend says that Befana misdirected the wise men, and now she seeks to atone by going about the world doing good to children.

In Scandinavian countries, gifts are given on St. Lucy's Day, December 13.

The time for gift giving in Puerto Rico and Spain is January 6, the day when, traditionally, the wise men came to Bethlehem.

In Germany From Christmas trees to Christmas toys, many Christmas customs now universally observed came first from Germany.

In the medieval town of Nuremberg, the highlight of the Christmas season is the "Christkindmarkt," or literally, Christ Child's Fair.

The "Christ Kind" or Christ Child, is the gift giver, and the culmination of the fair, on Christmas Eve, is a visit by the Christ Kind to the balcony.

of the historic church, the Frauenkirche. Days of group caroling by the children precede this event.

Fun And Feasting

A merry, hearty feast is traditional at Christmas, but the ingredients are not always the same. Norwegians might serve, instead of turkey and trimmings, codfish and pickled pork, while baked carp is a favored Christmas delicacy in Austria.

Christmas dining customs change with time, too. History describes a "traditional" Christmas feast of seventeenth century Quebec, a feast that would be considered somewhat unusual today.

Before each diner at the feast was placed a bowl of birchbark or polished basswood and a spoon of bark. The diners supplied their own knives, and there were no forks.

Into the bowl went first the appetizers—cornbread and a boiled mixture of eels, salmon and beans. The soup course was a rich meat broth, thickened with nuts. Vegetables included corn, peas and baked squash.

The main course featured roast venison and squirrel pies, with baked wild pigeons, partridges, blackbirds, owls—all served together.

Dessert consisted of cakes of maple sugar or sunflower seeds and nuts, topped with a sauce of boiled dried berries.

Lighting Up

Since the star shone on Bethlehem, lights have been a part of Christmas celebrations. Today, candlelight services are traditionally held by many churches at Christmas.

Something unique in the way of Christmas lights are the "luminarias" used to decorate the city of Albuquerque, N. M., at Christmastime.

Outlining the borders of streets, sidewalks, yards and even the roofs of homes, the luminarias shine everywhere. Made of paper bags, weighted down with sand and lighted from within by a candle thousands of luminarias all over the city offer a soft light.

Detroit Council Votes Funds For Police Overtime

DETROIT (UPI)—The Detroit City Council, reversing an earlier stand, voted funds to put 500 policemen on overtime to help counter an increase in crime and violence.

Police Commissioner Ray Girardin told the council he would have 70 additional policemen on the streets within minutes. Two councilmen who voted against the proposal last week switched and voted with the majority, piling up the two-third vote needed to make the funds available immediately.

The negative vote last week came when Girardin declined to formally call Detroit's crime situation an "emergency."

Exports Gain For Michigan

NEW YORK (UPI)—Gov. George Romney's tour of Europe earlier this year with a group of Michigan businessmen "may uncover new export opportunities and further increase the profitable role" of state industry, it was predicted today.

Francis P. Elter, president of the American Institute for Imported Steel, said the value of exports of products manufactured by Michigan business has soared to $836,400,000, according to the latest U.S. Department of Commerce figures. He said that represents an increase of 15 per cent over previous totals.

"This is an impressive achievement, which once again underlines the importance of foreign trade to the commerce of the state," he said. "Moreover the gain is especially significant because a broad spectrum of the state's manufacturing community has shared in the advance."

Elter predicted continued export gains, but stressed that a viable import situation is necessary to maintain the rapid pace of export expansion and profitability.

Among leading money-making exports for Michigan are transportation equipment, $452.4 million; machinery except electrical, $172.7 million; chemicals and allied products, $81.5 million; primary metal industries, $29.7 million, and fabricated metal products, $28 million.

Boxer, 18, Slugs Teacher, Gets 90 Days In Jail

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI)—Michigan novice boxing champion Robert L. Simpson, 18, was sentenced Friday to 90 days in jail for slugging an Ottawa Hills High School teacher.

Simpson already has served 11 days of an original 90-day sentence which he appealed in Circuit Court. A Circuit Court jury found him guilty Nov. 18 of charges he assaulted Raymond Hoag, 29, a mathematics teacher at the school, Sept. 28. The case created a controversy and Simpson appealed the original sentence imposed in police court after he pleaded guilty.

Simpson was reprimanded by Hoag for running down a corridor of the school. Simpson refused to apologize for his conduct and was expelled, after which the alleged attack occurred.

The National Association for Advancement of Colored People and other civil rights groups had asked for an investigation of the case.

Convicts Get Outside Jobs

LANSING (UPI)—Prison inmates who have good records and are believed to be a good social risk will be permitted to work on outside jobs during the day starting next year.

State Corrections Director Gus Harrison said the corrections commission approved granting work furloughs and passes to volunteer inmates who meet the requirements for day jobs.

The new program is patterned after one recently adopted by the federal government at federal penitentiaries. Some Michigan cities already have adopted the system.

Harrison said the program is designed to provide good risk inmates with an opportunity to support their dependents and to earn money for their "own financial security upon release."

Inmates will work on outside jobs during the day and be locked up at night. Those with a relatively short period of time remaining on their sentences also will be included in the program.

"Any inmate who has not established a good institutional record, or who has poor attitude, or is deviated in any way will not be considered for the program," Harrison said.

The men would work on jobs where there is a shortage of labor, according to current plans.

Correction officials believe money earned by some of the inmates also would be used for the care of dependents who are now carried on welfare rolls.

Good risk inmates also would be placed on jobs within reasonable commuting distance of an institution or jail.

A review of the plan is scheduled by the corrections commission Dec. 2. The plan is expected to go into operation at all state penal institutions about Jan. 1 or thereafter.

Community School Is Discussed

At a meeting of city, school and recreation officials Wednesday night, a proposal for a community school was discussed and slides were shown by Al Dighera of Northern Michigan University.

As the city has spent the major portion of its budget for the current fiscal year, it will continue operating its recreation program for the balance of the year, retaining its present director.

Action on a joint city and school program can be taken at budget time if the Council desires. An election is scheduled prior to the next city budget adoption, and Councilmen indicated they could not bind a future Council.

The city can under state law jointly arrange a recreation program with the school. It would need to adopt an ordinance and create a board to which it could appropriate its share. The board would have representatives for city, school and recreation interests.

Diesel Engines Ram Caboose, Crews Escape

IRON MOUNTAIN — Three diesel engine units of an east-bound Chicago & North Western iron ore train were derailed when they rammed the caboose of another east-bound train at 6:30 p.m. Friday at Spread Eagle, Wis., about seven miles north of here.

Railroad officials said no body was injured in the crash, but four crewmen — two on each train — had to jump for their lives seconds before the collision.

According to Lee McMillan,

C&NW dock agent at Escanaba, the wreck was "the worst in a long time" for the railroad.

Both trains were moving at the time of the crash. Railroad officials said the cause of the crash has not been determined and no damage estimate has been made. It is expected to be late Tuesday or Wednesday before track can be cleared and repaired.

Crew At Scene
McMillan said a wrecking crew from Green Bay was at the scene today.

The lead train was No. 1681 East out of Crystal Falls for Escanaba and included 70 cars loaded with iron ore. It was rammed by No. 425 East Extra from Stambaugh, according to sources in Iron Mountain.

The rear train was pulling 40 cars.

The caboose of the lead train was demolished and two cars ahead of it were derailed by the impact. Four cars behind the diesel units of the rear train were also derailed.

An estimated 300-400 feet of track was torn up by the crash, which was on a straight section of track. It happened on the railroad's main line.

Conductor Jumps

McMillan said that Conductor Lawrence Shanahan of Escanaba was one of the men who jumped from the caboose of the lead train before impact. Shanahan's crew was all from Escanaba.

The rear train, the last one of the season from Stambaugh, had Ray Costley, also of Escanaba, as conductor. The engineer and head brakeman leaped to safety from the engines.

The diesel units jack-knifed with the impact and overturned.

Favor Millage 5 To 4:

Only Nine Supervisors Answer Airport Survey

The Delta County Board of Supervisors, which voted 22-1 to ask taxpayers for two mills for one year to finance capital improvements at the Escanaba airport, is only 5-4 in favor of a "yes" vote on the proposal, according to a Daily Press survey.

Of 27 supervisors asked for their views on the proposal by the Daily Press in a questionnaire prepared to "guide the public in voting," only nine, however, have responded.

A tenth supervisor — Ray Norton of Gladstone — returned a letter but failed to specifically answer the questionnaire.

Supervisors Grey Knaus of Cornwell and George Rusch, Lawrence Jacobs, H. George Nelson and Wesley Hansen of Escanaba favor a "yes" vote on the question.

Supervisors George Young of Gladstone, Howard Logan of Baldwin Township, James Collins of Fairbanks Township and John Norman of Maple Ridge Township ask a "no" vote.

Young Opposed
Only Young opposed the issue in September when the Board of Supervisors ordered the election in action on a report by the Airport Study Committee which recommended county operation of the airport.

Supervisors Glen Moreau and Jacobs of Escanaba, Harold Gustafson of Ensign Township and Eugene Beck of Escanaba Township were absent from that meeting.

The airport election is scheduled on Monday, Dec. 6, and the Daily Press asked four questions of each supervisor to help guide the public in voting.

1. Do you favor a "yes" vote?

2. Why? 3. Will you regard a "yes" vote as a directive to Delta County to take over the airport from the City of Escanaba?

4. Do you think the area's economic growth will be hindered by a "no" vote? Why?

Supervisors who have not responded to the questionnaire are: Jacob A. Bink, Moreau, Charles Schmidt, Matt N. Smith and Harold J. Vanleberghie of Escanaba; John R. Olson and Frank Stupak of Gladstone; and Township supervisors Edwin C. Bergman, Bark River; Wallace C. Thorsen, Bay de Noc; Joseph R. Goodman, Brampton; Gustafson, Ensign; Beck, Escanaba; Phil A. Miron, Ford River; Frank Gray, Garden; Henry W. Vietzke, Masonville; Maurice LaVigne, Nahma; and Charles Sedemquist, Wells.

Norton Cites Bridges
Sedemquist is chairman of the County Board.

Latest responses came from Norton, Young, Knaus and Rusch.

Norton, though he did not answer the questionnaire, wrote, in part:

"The question to be voted on in the Dec. 6 election is simply this, do the taxpayers of Delta County wish to tax themselves two mills for one year to build a new air terminal building, access road, parking area, apron and taxiway, and extend runways for a total figure of approximately $521,000? . . . The present airport facilities have been allowed to deteriorate to such a point that they must be replaced. The port is operating on a temporary permit because of violation of safety regulations. The present terminal building should be replaced and relocated."

"However, it is ironic to note that while we are talking of the advent of jet travel our county bridges are in a state of disrepair. School buses and trucks become larger and heavier and the elderly bridges become older. There is no county money available to repair or replace these worn out structures. The voters of Delta County will decide on Dec. 6 on the airport issue. The bridge problem will still be with us."

Supervisor George Young of Gladstone, who was the only supervisor to oppose putting the issue on the ballot, continued his opposition.

"Have Enough Taxes"
Young wrote, "We have to pay enough taxes now. All of us in the county have schools to pay for. We in Gladstone have to carry the ball alone. It will take us 50 years to pay for our schools. If Escanaba was broke and had no money it might be a different story. I think Escanaba should help out the whole county at this time by keeping their own airport and improving it. We in the county do not know how much it will cost in tax money to maintain it, and there are bridges and a college that needs more money. We should let the people know that the county will need an airport authority to run it, and this will take another 75 of a mill to support this. These are the reasons I cannot support this at this time."

Young said, however, "if the people are given all facts to the cost other than the two mills for one year, I would consider a 'yes' vote meaning for the county to take over the airport."

Rusch, Knaus Support
"I think a 'no' vote may hinder economic growth. If Escanaba refused to keep the airport in shape, I believe at this time they could do it and help us all out until things are a little better in Delta County."

Latest support for the proposal came from Grey Knaus of Cornwell and George Rusch of Escanaba.

"I feel that the airport is and should be a county responsibility, not just the City of Escanaba," Knaus said. "The airport serves the entire Delta County area, not just one city."

"If we are to have economic growth in the Delta County area, we must have sufficient and suitable transportation facilities. We normally think of air transportation in terms of passenger service. This isn't necessarily the whole picture. Air freight is being used more and more as time goes on to speed up the services rendered by our various shops and industries. Time is money in any industry, whether it be large or small."

Knaus also said he "feels that the people of Delta County by a 'yes' vote want the Board of Supervisors to assume the responsibility of improving and operating the airport."

A "no" vote, he said, would "without a doubt hinder our economic growth. Industry would be more reluctant to build plants here. Those now here would be more hesitant to expand present facilities. Therefore, our laboring people would have fewer jobs locally. They would have to migrate to other localities as they are now doing."

City Has Investment
Rusch, citing the recommendation of the Airport Study Committee, also favored a "yes" vote.

"A decision to go along with such a recommendation on the part of Escanaba bears heavily on the Escanaba City Council when considering the dollars the city has invested in the airport ($225,000 city, plus $425,000 federal and state). However, based on the recommendation of the men who have studied the question as part of the County Airport Study Committee, the City Council feels that the best interests of the entire area would be served by turning the airport over to the county. The Council has previously agreed and indicated that for the sum of $1 such a transfer would be made if the Dec. 6 millage vote is passed."

Rusch also said he would regard a "yes" vote on the millage as a directive to the county to take over the airport, but was not certain on the economic aspects of a "no" vote.

"In all fairness, I cannot be certain whether the economic growth of the area will be hindered by a 'no' vote because of my limited knowledge of airports. However, based on the opinions of men whom I respect (the named six area industrial heads) for their knowledge and long association with airport traffic and its impact on industry, I must say a 'no' vote will hinder our economic progress."

Emergency Room Usage Erupting

Michigan Blue Cross reports on major research examining why patients are making ever-increasing use of the hospital emergency rooms.

The findings indicate that:

1. Changing patterns of practice among physicians have increased the need for emergency room service.

2. Hospitals are viewed by most people as community health centers.

3. Greater numbers of emergencies make increasing demands on physicians and the nature of the emergencies often require facilities available at hospitals.

Blue Cross undertook the study because of concern over growing emergency room utilization. Especially at issue in Wayne County, the problems stemming from the emergency room use touch virtually every acute general care hospital in Michigan.

The study, first of its kind in the United States, covered emergency room care in 22 Michigan hospitals during a 7-day period in January.

Besides examining and analyzing 2,650 hospital case records, the study involved extensive data received from 540 patients.

The report indicated that 35 per cent of all patients were sent to emergency rooms by their physicians. Fifty-four per cent did not attempt to contact a physician before going to emergency rooms, mostly because they did not believe their physicians were available, they were taken or sent involuntarily to the hospital.

League Ending Discussion On Apportionment

The League of Women Voters will conclude their discussion on Apportionment next week by attempting to arrive at consensus on whether or not the United States Constitution should be amended, and if so, what such an amendment should provide.

The Monday night unit will be at the home of Mrs. N. L. Lindquist at 8 p.m. The Wednesday morning unit will be at the home of Mrs. James Fitzharris at 9:30.

A social hour will follow both meetings.

Northern Asked To Serve Sault

Northern Natural Gas Co. announced today it will file an application with the Federal Power Commission by Dec. 30 to build a $200 million pipeline system to deliver natural gas from Western Canada to Eastern Canadian markets via the United States.

W. A. Strauss, Northern president, said that under this proposal Northern would serve Canadian natural gas to its existing customers in Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Upper Michigan markets and an equivalent amount of United States gas to Eastern Canada. The exchange, he said, would lower future gas transmission costs for both United States and Canadian consumers.

Northern would add to its existing pipeline system some 900 miles of new large diameter pipeline and would carry gas from Emerson, Manitoba on the Canadian border to the international border near Detroit, for Trans-Canada Pipeline, Ltd. Northern would also provide service to the Sault Ste. Marie area by extending its pipeline serving the Marquette area.

The new pipeline facilities would include 280 miles of large diameter line from Emerson to a point south of Duluth, and 620 miles of line from Ogden, Iowa to St. Clair, Mich. The Minnesota facilities would be capable ultimately of delivering over a billion cubic feet of Canadian gas into the north end of Northern's present system and the southern leg would be able to deliver equivalent amounts of United States gas to Eastern Canada.

Northern said it would ask the Federal Power Commission to authorize its exchange proposal instead of a plan filed Oct. 15 by Great Lakes Transmission Co. which would transport gas from Western to Eastern Canada through a pipeline that would cross northern Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan.

H. M. Sampson, Northern vice-president, said that authorizing Northern's proposal would avoid unnecessary duplication of Northern's adequate existing facilities in upper Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan and provide a pipeline route through a United States market area with a much greater growth potential than the Great Lakes project.

Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., which is supplying the southern half of the Upper Peninsula with natural gas while Northern Natural supplies the northern half, is interested in the Great Lakes Transmission Co. application and in supplying natural gas to the Sault area.

The situation brings the two giant gas utilities now serving the U. P. into competition to serve the remaining unserved area of the Peninsula.

Jerry Cvengros, Escanaba High School head football coach, is a member of the Detroit Free Press grid panel that is meeting this weekend to make the annual high school all-state selections for that newspaper. . . . Cvengros will represent the Upper Peninsula schools on the panel.

For the first time in many years, the Upper Peninsula failed to land a player on the first or second teams in the Associated Press All-State Class B football selections this fall. . . . Jeff Gill, Kingsford tackle; Jack Rumohr, Munising guard and John Krznarich, Ironwood center, were named to the honorable mention list. . . . Barry Pierson of St. Ignace, the U. P. back of the year, was placed on the second team in Class C.

The Green and the Whites, playing in the annual Northern Michigan University intrasquad game at Marquette, combined for 220 points with the Whites winning, 114-106. . . . Former Holy Name star Con Yagodzinski paced the Greens with 30 points while All-American Gene Summers led the Whites with 41. . . . Other double figure scorers in the game were Dave Kovack of Westville, Ill., with 29, Les Coduti of Ishpeming with 18, Mike Boyde of New Castle, Ind., with 16, Brian Ferguson of Lansing 29, Dom Jacobetti of Negaunee 15, Bill Koski of Champion 12 and Bill Driskell of Robins, Ill., 10.

The Upper Peninsula high school coaching turnover was unusually light this year. . . . There are only 11 new head basketball mentors at U. P. schools this season: Don Meyers at Calumet, Jim DePew at Newberry, Jim Lalas at Rudyard, Carl Gregas at Bessemer, Gene Shank of St. Ignace, Jim Jacobson of Eben, Tom DeBakker of Bark River, Dennis Tiziani of Ironwood St. Ambrose, Russ Bailey of Marquette, Tim Bullock of Republic and Gene DeKeyer of Rock.

According to the first statistics release by Ken Petersen of Escanaba on the Great Northern basketball season, Paul Miller of the Eskymos is the top rebounder and second leading scorer in the conference. Miller had 20 points and 21 rebounds in the Esky opener against Holy Name. . . . Complete statistical reports will be published as the season progresses.

The Ironwood Red Devils won their second game of the young season by edging past Ashland, 60-53, behind a 19 point scoring performance by Guy Kansas. . . . Outscored by eight field goals, the Oredockers poured in 27 of 32 gift shots to stay in the game.

The Bessemer Speed Boys opened the new season the same way they closed the old one suffering a 70-64 setback to Hurley in a Michigan-Wisconsin Conference contest. . . . The defeat was Bessemer's 35th straight extending back to the 1963-64 campaign. . . . Rick Schwartz scored 21 points for Bessemer, 13 from the free throw line.

Houghton made it two in a row by rallying from a seven point deficit at halftime to whip Calumet, 69-55, with Jerry LaJennesse scoring 30 points. . . . At Chassell, Dave Veranen laced in 32 points to lead the Panthers to a 60-52 verdict over Doelle. . . . Bob Frede clicked for 35 as Channing trounced Republic, 87-58. . . . He connected for 16 field goals and one free throw.

Two Upper Peninsula athletes earned varsity letters with the Michigan State football team that will play in the Rose Bowl classic Jan. 1. . . . Bob Brawley of Sault Ste. Marie was a linebacker and Jack Schindler of Iron River a tackle with the Big Ten champs.

Don Westby, former Eskymo athlete was a member of the Western Michigan University football team this fall. . . . Westby is a 6 foot 2 inch, 200 pound junior center, the only Upper Peninsula athlete on the team. . . . The Broncos won 6, lost 2 and tied 1.

Dolan Day, one of the four Upper Peninsula teams that failed to win a basketball game last season, snapped a 22 game losing streak by turning back Baraga, 64-35, in a Copper Country Conference opener this week. . . . Coach of the Bluebolts is Harvey Filpula, former cage mentor at Menominee.

The Marquette Iron Rangers, winner in their first two United States Hockey League starts, have lost the services of veteran Buckey O'Neill for an indefinite period with a severe eye injury sustained in last week's penalty-riddled battle with Green Bay. . . . In addition, playing coach Oakie Brumm was handed a one game suspension and a $15 fine for his part in the donnybrook. . . . The Rangers are tied with Waterloo at the top of the USHL standings.

Cleveland Should Clinch Eastern Division Honors With Victory On Sunday

By United Press International

The Eastern Division race in the National Football League should be just about over Sunday night but the Western Division title chase could be just starting.

The Cleveland Browns will clinch at least a tie for the Eastern championship with a victory over Pittsburgh and a 11-point picks despite the fact they beat the Steelers by only 24-19 in an earlier game.

The Baltimore Colts' 24-24 Thanksgiving Day tie with the Detroit Lions, however, has given the Green Bay Packers a fresh chance at the Western title. The Colts now stand at 9-1-1 and the Packers will increase their record to 9-2 if they beat the Los Angeles Rams.

The tie—thrown out mathematically in computing NFL standings—works in favor of the Colts at the moment. But it would work heavily against them should the Packers beat the Rams Sunday and then defeat the Colts in their head-on meeting at Baltimore on Dec. 11. The Packers are rated eight points over the Rams in Sunday's game.

Bears over Giants
The Chicago Bears are rated six points over the New York Giants, the St. Louis Cardinals are four over the Philadelphia Eagles, the Minnesota Vikings are five over the San Francisco Forty-Niners and the Washington Redskins are four over the Dallas Cowboys.

Home teams are Pittsburgh, Los Angeles, New York, St. Louis, Minnesota and Washington.

The Steelers (2-8) almost beat the Browns on a muddy field in their first meeting of the season. Jimmy Brown, with 1,163 yards rushing and 15 touchdowns, is hammering his way toward one of the best seasons of his career and is ably assisted by passer Frank Ryan.

Willie Wood Speaker At Football Banquet

Willie Wood, one of the all-time great Green Bay Packers defensive halfbacks, will be the main speaker at the annual Gladstone Rotary Club football recognition banquet Monday, Dec. 6.

The dinner, honoring Gladstone varsity and junior varsity players, cheerleaders and coaches, will begin at 6:30 p. m. at the James T. Jones School. A limited number of tickets will be available to the public.

Also honored at the dinner will be Wayne Melchiori, Ironwood football mentor, who has been named Upper Peninsula grid coach of the year by the U. P. Sports-writers' Association.

One of the most popular players with the Packers, Wood is 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighs 185 pounds. Born in Washington, D. C., in 1936, Willie is in his sixth year in professional football after graduating from Southern California.

Wood is one of the unique National Football League players who was not drafted by the pros. He wrote to the Packers for a tryout and was signed as a free agent. Wood was a quarterback in college.

Blessed with great speed and timing, Wood is regarded as one of the best defensive halfbacks in pro ranks. He led the NFL in interceptions in 1962. Wood also led the league in punt returns in 1961 and was second in 1962 and 1963.

Wood has been honored a number of times as the best in his trade. He was named to the Associated Press, Newspaper Enterprises Association and United Press International All-Pro team last season and was NEA All-Pro in 1963. He played in the Pro Bowl Game in 1964.

Greatly interested in young people, Wood is employed with the Justice Department in Washington, D. C., in the off-season.

Coach Don Pfotenbauer's Gladstone Braves this year won five games, lost three and tied one, scoring 137 points to 763 for their opponents. The Braves defeated Newberry, Ishpeming, Marquette Baraga, Gwinn and L'Anse, lost to Norway, Manistowic and Munising and tied Stephenson.

Junior halfback Tom Stade was the leading rusher on the team with 764 yards in 144 carries for a 5.3 average. Junior fullback Gary Larson was the top touchdown producer with five and followed Stade in the yardage list with 373 in 110 carries for a 3.4 average.

Other Gladstone ground gainers for the season were Mike Damitz with 92, Mark Goodman 73, Mike Maniaci 44 and Mike Cole 48.

Goodman completed 44 of 113 passes for 703 yards and four touchdowns. Stade clicked on nine tosses for 110 yards while Don Pfotenbauer completed five and Damitz three to complete the passing attack.

Top receivers on the squad were Dick Anderson who hauled in 15 aeriels for 246 yards and one touchdown and Keith Apelgren who caught 13 for 233 yards and three TDs. Stade was also a prime target with 11 receptions for 193 yards.

Gladstone's leading tackler this season was 200 pound line-man Bill Potvin, credited with 111 stops for an average of 12.3 per game. Other defensive standouts included Larson, Russ Sargent, Stade, Roy Dewitt, Maniaci, Goodman, Apelgren and Anderson.

Top scorers Jones was injured Wednesday against the New York Knickerbockers, but that didn't stop the Eastern Division leaders from demolishing the Western Division cellar-dwelling Detroit Pistons, 134-114, in National Basketball Association play Friday night.

The Celtics scored 41 points in the fourth quarter and seven Celts hit in double figures.

The win, the fourth straight by Boston, was paced by John Havlicek with 28 points.

Rate Michigan Best Quint In Midwest Ranks
CHICAGO (UPI)—Midwest college basketball should boast the best balanced competition in almost a decade this season, with defending Big Ten champion Michigan joining a mob of title contenders.

The strength of the Independents probably will be down with Notre Dame, Loyola and De Paul less likely to rate as tournament contenders than any time in the past five years.

Numerous stars return, and the Wolverines' hope to retain the Big Ten title for the third straight season could depend on how well Coach Dave Strack can blend less experienced players with veterans Cazzie Russell, Oliver Darden and Jim Myers.

Strack believed his Michigan quintet would be "real good," but probably not the equal of last year.

Iowa, with second-year Coach Ralph Miller at the helm, and Minnesota, runnerup for the title last year, might be the upsets to Michigan's chances.

Hawkeyes are Strong
The Hawkeyes retain four of last year's starters, including Chris Pervall, fifth-ranked in scoring last year, and Minnesota will have three of last year's starters, including the third-ranked scorer, Lou Hudson.

Inexperience could be the bugaboo at two usual powers, Illinois and Indiana. Coach Harry Combes of the Illini can count on veteran Don Freeman, but he'll have to use inexperienced men at the other spots.

Nahma Stuns Eben Quint
NAHMA—The Nahma Arrows, winless all last season, reached up to smack defending champion Eben with a 64-61 upset in a Central League basketball clash Wednesday night.

Coach Seb Rubick's cagers continued their court comeback with a balanced attack that saw three players reach double figures in the scoring column. Rich Schafer set the pace with a 24 point performance and was a demon on the boards with 16 rebounds.

The victory was the second this season against one setback for Nahma. Eben, under new coach Jim Jacobson, now has a 1-1 record.

The Arrows shot at a 47 per cent pace from the floor, ringing the bell on 28 of 59 attempts and adding 8 of 17 shots from the free throw line. Eben connected on 23 of 34 from the field and 15 of 23 from the line.

Nahma fought off a late Eben rally and clinched the decision with a pair of free throws by Jim Sefcik with four seconds remaining in the game.

The Redskins made it look easy with punt return specialist Rickie Harris racing for 146 yards in runbacks in last week's victory over the Steelers. But the Cowboys are much tougher on defense than the Steelers and also boast a speedball of their own in Bob Hayes.

It's Off Again In Caddy For Slugger Dick Stuart
By MILTON RICHMAN
FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI)—Troubles keep piling up for poor Dick Stuart, who is about to receive another reminder that you can't hold on to a job until you learn how to hold on to the ball.

Stuart never really bothered with that delicate phase of the game because he was brought up on the theory that home run hitters drive Cadillacs and fancy fielders never drive anything other than bicycles.

So, for the third time in four years, big Stu will be forced to get behind the wheel of his snazzy Caddy convertible and drive it somewhere else.

The Phillies prefer a first baseman who not only can hit, but also can field and they feel they acquired precisely such a fellow when they obtained Bill White from the Cardinals recently.

Angels' Christmas Gift
That doesn't leave much room for Stuart and it is said the Phillies already have wrapped him up in a nice neat package to be delivered to the California Angels as sort of a Christmas gift.

Stuart isn't dismayed about his impending transfer. He's used to it by now.

A year ago this time, the Red Sox fell all over themselves pushing him off on the Phillies and two years before that the Pirates patted him on the back and handed him a one-way ticket to Boston.

The Moral of this story could well be leave your glove at home and see the world. . . .

Now that they have Dick Groat, the Phillies are reported ready to deal off one of their two other shortstops, Bobby Wine or Ruben Amaro, during the baseball meetings which start here Sunday. . . .

Who says Lieut. Gen. William D. Eckert, the new commissioner, doesn't have a baseball background?

He has something in common at least with Abner Doubleday, generally acknowledged to be the father of baseball. Doubleday and Eckert both were West Point graduates.

Jack Clary, the able staffer of the New York World-Telegram and Sun, provides that information and plenty more in his fine book, Army vs.

Navy (Ronald Press—36).

He also details how the Army-Navy series first got underway.

Back in 1870, a group of Midshipmen sailed up the Hudson River on a practice cruise and visited West Point. They challenged the Cadets to a baseball game or a boat race.

The Cadets understandably felt they'd have a disadvantage in a boat race and suggested a game of marbles instead. But the sailors didn't go for that one because they couldn't get in enough practice on the sloping decks of their ships.

Twenty years and a lot of conversation later, Army and Navy met in their first football game at West Point with the Middies winning the inaugural, 24-0. . . .

Now that Lee MacPhail moves into the commissioner's office, the Baltimore Orioles have to find themselves another general manager.

The man with the inside track for MacPhail's job is farm director Harry Dalton, one of the most capable administrators around. Dalton is 35, bright, enthusiastic and indefatigable. He and his top-drawer scouting staff are responsible for all those fine young players the Orioles have come up with during the past few years. . . .

And speaking of Baltimore, look for the Colts to concentrate on offensive linemen in today's National Football League draft. The Colts already know that George Preas, an offensive guard, definitely will retire after this season and that Alex Sandusky, another offensive guard, probably will do so, too.

State Golfers Out Of Running
LAFAYETTE, La. (UPI)—Michigan's Phil Weichman was far behind the leaders after the second round of competition in the $32,000 Cajun Classic Golf Tournament held Friday.

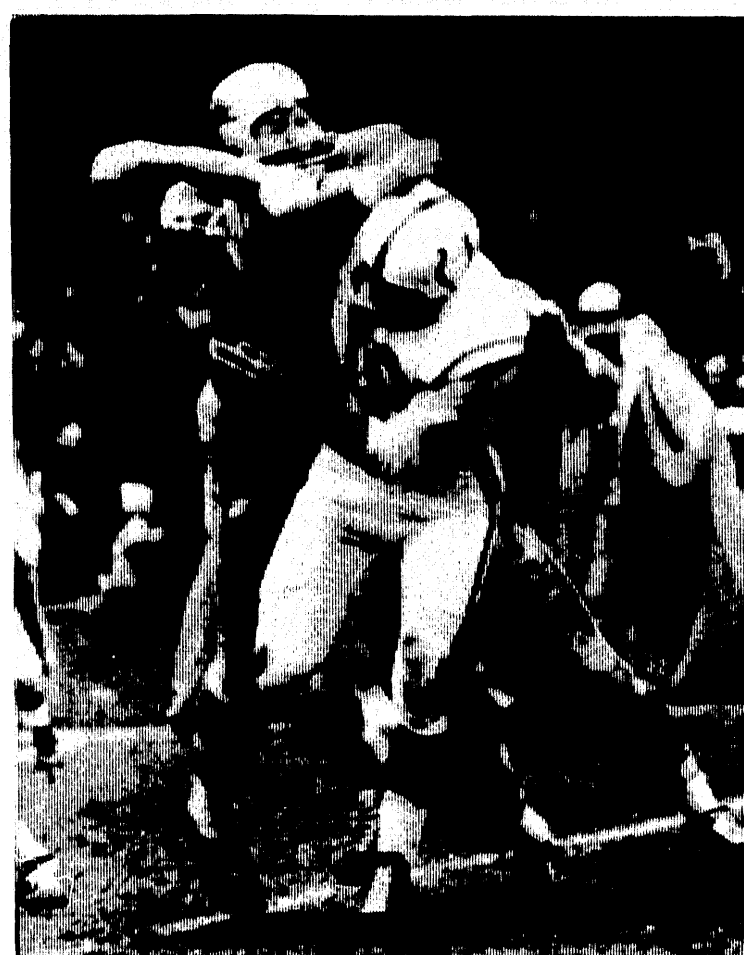

Weichman shot a 77 round Friday to raise his two-day total to 150, far behind Jack Nicklaus, leading 136.

Another Michigan man, Glenn Stuart, Grand Rapids, was listed in a tie for 10th place in the field with a 139 total.

Oman Honored On All-State
Steve Oman, Escanaba's All-Upper Peninsula tackle, was named to the Associated Press all-state football honorable mention list in Class A this week.

The 6 foot, 210 pound Escanaba senior was one of two Upper Peninsula players honored in Class A. The other was Mike Zimmerman of Sault Ste. Marie, a 6 foot 4 inch, 240 pound tackle.

Nance Gains Stature With Weight Loss

By JOE GERGEN
UPI Sports Writer

It isn't often a professional football team gains stature by losing weight but that's the unusual situation in which the Boston Patriots find themselves as they ready for Sunday's American Football League battle against the New York Jets.

The lost poundage belonged to one Jim Nance, a large fullback from Syracuse University for whom the Patriots broke an unwritten club rule and signed to a "no-cut" contract after the 1964 college season.

"This could be the most important single signing in our history," said Boston President Bill Sullivan when the Patriots inked the bullish youngster, who appeared to be the big fullback the club was seeking since its inception.

However, Nance, who was listed at 225 pounds on the Patriots' roster, ballooned to 258 in his rookie AFL season and was virtually useless to the team, which was breaking down in a number of other positions. But Head Coach Mike Holovak laid down the law, Nance lost 14 pounds on a crash diet and suddenly one of Boston's weak spots has been capably filled.

The Patriots-Jets game of one of only two league games on tap this weekend, Kansas City, like New York still mathematically clinging to its pennant hopes, hosts the Houston Oilers. Buffalo and San Diego battled to a 20-20 tie on Thanksgiving Day and Oakland and Denver are idle.

Nance, who was the third-leading ground gainer in Syracuse history behind Jim Brown and Ernie Davis when he graduated, received a public and private dressing down from Holovak two weeks ago and slimmer to reasonable proportions. He then rushed for 66 yards in 17 carries against Kansas City, gained 22 yards on three pass receptions and did a fine job blocking for quarterback Babe Parilli as the Patriots tied the favored Chiefs 10-10.

Namath A Sparkplug
The Jets, of course, have some rookies of their own, including $400,000 quarterback Joe Namath, who has provided the spark in New York's four-game winning streak which has carried the Jets into second place in the Eastern Division.

The Oilers came out of the New York game with nine injured players and stumpy fullback Charley Tolar will be forced to miss his first game since 1960—a streak of 112 consecutive appearances. Bob Jackson will start in place of Tolar, who injured his knee.

George Blanda, who came off the bench to fire five touchdowns passes in the Oilers' 38-36 victory over the Chiefs earlier this year, will start at quarterback Kansas City, the home team, is a 10-point choice despite the loss of split end Chris Burford, who suffered a shoulder separation.

Schellhase the Key
The sharpshooter of Purdue, of course, will be Dave Schellhase, who averaged 29.3 points per game last season and won the Big Ten scoring championship.

Northwestern could be a surprise. Coach Larry Glass hopes that experience and continued good rebounding could make the Wildcats a contender.

Ohio State and Wisconsin also expected improvement with more experience. Wisconsin also has numerous holdovers from last year's eighth place team, notably Mark Zubor, Ken Barnes and Ken Gustafson.

De Paul's Ray Meyer will have to make position shifts to keep his experienced hands in the game and plans to play "probably the smallest guard in big time basketball, 5-6 Terry Flanigan."

George Ireland of Loyola complained that he had good speed and fair shooting, but no big man. Johnny Dee expects little from his second Notre Dame team and that's probably what he'll get. Two of his veterans, Buckey McGinn and Kevin Hardy, have been injured and might not play at all.

More Students To Make Trip To Rose Bowl

EAST LANSING (UPI)—Newly available rail and air space will enable at least 1,500 additional Michigan State University students to make a trip to the Rose Bowl, it was announced Friday.

MSU had booked 2,706 students for the California trip when a shortage of travel space brought a temporary halt to sales Tuesday. An urgent appeal to major air and rail lines uncovered the new space and package tours will once again be available to students starting next week.

James Tanck, president of Associated Students of Michigan State University, said the new accommodations make it likely that a record 4,000 MSU students will travel to Pasadena for the Jan. 1 football classic. MSU set the previous Big Ten record by sending over 2,600 students to the 1956 game, he said.

TANCK said indications are that even more space could be found if student demands continue at the present level.

The cost of the student package tours include round trip transportation with meals en route, hotel room, tickets to both the football game and the Rose Parade, and a New Year's eve dinner-dance. Costs vary according to the mode of transportation.

MSU also announced that an advance party of four school officials, headed by MSU Athletic Director Clarence W. "Biggie" Munn, will leave for California Monday to make arrangements for hotel accommodations, floats and the parade, and set up alumni affairs. They were expected to return in midweek.

Mediocre Teams Battle It Out In Philadelphia

By RICHARD ROSSI
UPI Sports Writer

About 100,000 persons will pack Philadelphia's John F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium today to watch two mediocre teams battle for absolutely nothing.

Nothing that is, but pride, honor, tradition and a host of other sentiments that go into making the annual Army-Navy Game a spectacular study in mayhem and the number one attraction on this week's college football calendar.

The Middies are seven-point favorites for the 66th meeting of the ancient rivals, although neither team has shown much more than spirit this season. Navy has run up a 4-1 record and the Cadets log reads 4-5.

In other top attractions Saturday, fifth-ranked Alabama is a seven-point pick over Auburn, seventh-ranked Notre Dame is favored by 12 over Miami (Fla.), 10th-ranked Southern California is rated 20 points better than Wyoming and Tennessee, No. 8, is favored by 14 points over Vanderbilt.

Quarterback John Cartwright and Bruce Bickel guide the Midshipmen and fullbacks Danny Wong and Al Roodhouse will both be in the backfield with Roodhouse moving over to halfback.

Halfback Sonny Stowers has been the workhorse for the Cadets this season, running the ball 177 times, but Coach Paul Dietzel will try to get the Army attack off the ground by playing two quarterbacks, Curt Cook and Fred Barofsky.

Steve Sloane leads the attack for Orange Bowl-bound Alabama and has so far guided "Bama to a 5-1 mark in the

Attend the Church of Your Choice

THE GOOD LIFE

When Grandmother and Grandfather Todd came to say their goodbyes before leaving for Florida, we took their picture. Looking at it, I remember them as they were that day, serene and happy, anticipating their trip. To them there are no sunset years but always a new day ahead.

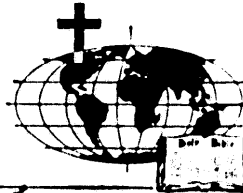

Life has truly been a table spread before them. Oh, there have been sorrows and trouble aplenty, but always His rod and staff have comforted them. Even in the shadow of death God has been with them, for the Lord is their Shepherd.

Such faith may be yours. Your church is the open door through which you may find that fellowship of understanding which has been to my grandparents their greatest treasure.

Attend your church and find there, through worship and prayer, the inspiration you need for religious growth.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
